

O. Hm.

Oregon
Humanities

Questions?
Call Sarah Van Winkle at
(800) 735-0543, ext. 112
oregonhumanities.org

REED COLLEGE

Humanity in Perspective

Application Form

Please complete all parts of this application in ink and return to Sarah Van Winkle, Oregon Humanities, 813 SW Alder St., Ste. 702, Portland, OR 97205, or fax to (503) 241-0024. Applications will be reviewed to determine if your needs meet the program's goals. Applicants under consideration will be invited for a brief interview.

Humanity in Perspective is a free, college-credit humanities course for adults living on low incomes. Those who have a college degree (AA, BA, MA, etc.) are not eligible.

Applications must be delivered or postmarked by July 15, 2010.

Legal name

Preferred name (if different than above)

Date of birth

Address

City

State

Zip

Home phone

Cell phone

Work phone

E-mail

Emergency contact (name and number)

How did you hear about HIP? If from a person or organization, please tell us who.

Section 1. Educational Background

Did you graduate from high school?

yes no

Have you earned a GED?

yes no

Are you currently working toward a GED?

yes no

Have you attended any college?

yes no

If yes, where?

For how long?

Are you currently in school or taking classes?

yes no

If yes, where?

For how long?

Section 2. Occupational Background

Are you currently employed? Full-time Part-time Not working at this time

What is your occupational background?

Will your schedule allow you to attend Monday and Thursday evening classes?

Section 3. Personal Information

This information will be kept confidential. HIP is for adults who live on low incomes (less than $20,000 annual household income for a single adult or $40,000 for a family of four) and for whom the costs of tuition, books, child care, and transportation (which are free for HIP students) would be prohibitive. Requesting financial information helps us ensure that those invited to participate in HIP could not otherwise afford such an opportunity.

Do you consider yourself low-income? yes no

Estimated 2009 Annual Household income

Number in household?

With whom do you live (spouse, family, friends)?

How do you identify yourself? (optional; select as many as apply)

Hispanic/Latino White Asian, Pacific Islander, Native Hawaiian Native American
 Middle Eastern Multiracial African American Other (please specify): _____

First Language Other Languages

What are your current entitlements, if any (SSI, WIC, TANF, AFDC, other)?

Have you completed, or are you currently in, any other programs (job training, life skills, recovery, etc.)?

Is there anything else you would like Oregon Humanities to know about you?

Do you have any special needs?

Child care is available during class hours. Will you require child care? yes no

If yes, how many children will need care while you are in class?

What are their ages?

We provide bus tickets for your travel to and from class. Will you need bus tickets? yes no

If yes, are you eligible to use Honored Citizen tickets? yes no

Section 4. Essay Questions

Using both sides of this page, please answer each of the following questions. You can write or type your responses.

1. What is one problem in America that you think citizens should be working together to address?

2. Describe a book, poem, or article you find moving. Describe its significance to your life.

Section 4. Essay Questions

(continued)

3. Describe a challenging event or situation in your life. How did you overcome this challenge and how has it influenced who you are today?

4. What would you want to do or be able to do after taking this course?